Mackerel Notes.

Since our last report, sch. Rival, Capt. Wesley Farmer, with 142 barrels of salt mackerel, and sch. Manomet, Capt. William Price, with 41 barrels, have arrived from the southeast part of Georges. Their fish were taken on Thursday and Friday of last week, but on Saturday the schools were so large that nothing could be done with them. The water was clear and they would dive the seines every time they were set. The captains corroborate the previous reports of Capt. Nickerson of the Titania and Capt. Morgan of the Constellation of the large amount of mackerel seen, particularly on Saturday.

Sch. Kentucky came in from a mackerel cruise. Capt. Prior reports spending part of two days on the southeast part of Georges and has scoured the Bay of Fundy and Maine coast twice and saw no mackerel.

At Boston yesterday on steamer Olivette were 150 barrels of salt mackerel and 50 barrels of fresh mackerel from Halifax, N. S.

The fare of sch. Monarch sold to Slade Gorton at $16.75 per barrel.

The fare of sch. Leander F. Gould sold to D. E. Woodbury at $17.50 per barrel.

Steamer Alice M. Jacobs was reported at New Bedford yesterday. She had been down through South Channel and had seen no mackerel. The steamer will probably go on the railway there.

At New York yesterday were 100 barrels of salt mackerel from Nova Scotia.

The spring mackerel fishery at Dingle, Ireland, closed July 1 and no more fishing will be done until the last of August or first of September.

Fishing Fleet Movements.

Sch. Marguerite arrived at Liverpool on day.

SEIZED AT CANSO.

Sch. Claudia of This Port Held There Yesterday.

INFRACTION OF CUSTOMS LAW.

Released in Evening on Payment of Fine.

A dispatch from Canso, N. S., states that sch. Claudia, Capt. Henry S. Jacobs, of this port, was seized at that port yesterday by the collector of customs for an infraction of the customs law. The vessel was released last evening on the payment of a fine.

The firm of Sylvanus Smith & Co., to whom the schooner belongs, have received a dispatch from Capt. Jacobs containing the information that he found that some trawl gear was gone from the vessel, which he located on shore in the possession of a party, whom the captain had arrested. The man then turned around and informed the collector of customs that one of the crew had sold the gear ashore and that official promptly turned around and clapped a fine of $400 on the vessel for an infraction of the customs law.

This fine Capt. Jacobs paid under protest. It seems a pretty queer proceeding, to say the least, on the part of the Canadian government representatives, and the end of the case is not yet.

AT VIRGIN ROCK.

Dory Handline Fleet Are Now All There.

Were Spoken Recently by Sch. Harry A. Nickerson.

Capt. Charles Forbes of sch. Harry A. Nickerson, which arrived from Grand Bank yesterday afternoon, reports seeing the whole fleet of dory handliners at the Virgin Rocks.

Sch. Aloha was there and also all the Bucksport fleet. The fleet had not done much, the highest having 400 tubs, but all expressed the determination of staying there until they got trips.

Fine Stock.

Sch. Alice R. Lawson, Capt. Gilbert Goodwin, stocked $8374 on her recent salt bank trip, the crew sharing $276.40. This is the best stock and share made by a firm banker this season.

Long Beach Day.

Long Beach Day is the latest summer observance, and the residents of that resort will fittingly celebrate in August, the date to be later announced.

Halibut at Boston.

Sch. Paragon arrived at Boston yesterday afternoon with a fare of fresh halibut.
